VIETNAMESE SUMMARY SUPPLEMENT
(Information as of 1030 EST)

1. Madame Nhu, scheduled to speak in Los Angeles tonight at an open meeting sponsored by the Young Republican Club, said on her return from San Francisco last night that she may have a "major pronouncement" to make before she leaves for Saigon.

2. Her departure plans are still vague, but at present she has no further engagements after tonight's speech. Officials at Warner Brothers studio in Hollywood said they had turned down her request to visit the set where Audrey Hepburn and Rex Harrison are filming "My Fair Lady." Director George Cukor, who has kept the set closed to all visitors, had said he would not welcome the visit, and Miss Hepburn reportedly threatened to be ill and absent if Mme. Nhu came.

3. Last night Mme. Nhu spoke to about 10,000 students on the University of California campus at Berkeley, Cal. She got a mixed reaction of applause and hisses, repeating the themes she has been using for the past three weeks. There were no unusual incidents.
